Message from the Co-Founders and Co-Chairs

Human actions are making our Earth home increasingly uninhabitable for the family of life.

It is essential for humanity to regenerate our One Home by restoring our unity with the diversity of life on Earth, and by co-creating integral systems that nurture the interconnected wholeness of life.

One Home Univ^{EARTH}sity, stewarded by the growing Home for Humanity movement, accelerates this necessary transformation, in close collaboration with our renowned global and local partner organisations.

One Home Univ^{EARTH}sity champions pioneers who are preserving and innovating life-based systems, and catalyzes and connects aspiring future builders, locally and globally.

One Home Univ^{EARTH}sity's co-learning Earth Journeys create radical inclusion and exponential impact by unleashing the power of our homes:

*the inner home of personal transformation,
the local home of community and societal renewal, and the Earth Home, through our collective and connected initiatives for planetary regeneration.*

Earth Citizen by Earth Citizen, home to home, culture by culture, and country by country: together we can co-create Home on Earth for all of life ... and for the seven generations to come.

We welcome you as co-creators of the One Home Univ^{EARTH}sity!

INTRODUCTION

The One Home UnivEARTHsity responds to Humanity's quest for a regenerative future that serves all life.

It offers emancipatory, liberating, transformative, whole-life and whole-Earth based education for aspiring future builders to fulfil their purpose and potential, renew their communities and regenerate our Home Planet.

Its co-learning and co-creative virtual Earth journeys are democratised and open to all, across all ages and backgrounds, regardless of prior academic qualifications.

It catalyses participants' innate capacity to be integral leaders, to innovate purpose-based initiatives and regenerative livelihoods, and to pioneer future-building for the common good.

Through the One Home Journey, it connects Earth Citizens home to home, across continents, in mutual support and co-creation.

The One Home UnivEARTHsity accelerates the emergence of an economy of wellbeing, and the paradigm shift towards life-based systems across all sectors of society.

The One Home UnivEARTHsity takes the experience of over 20 years of transformative education for changemakers worldwide, from undergraduate to PhD level, 'on the road', home to home, to every country on Earth, through the One Home Journey.

The One Home UnivEARTHsity's Integral Earth Curriculum is grounded in the ever growing Homes for Humanity movement, with each home pioneering paradigm-shifting innovations to transform their communities in the midst of acute economic, environmental and political crisis, despite all odds.

Homes for Humanity are places of inclusion, innovation and transformation. Worldwide, such Home for Humanity organisations are led by grassroots women leaders, refugees and asylum seekers, ecosystem regenerators and organic farmers, entrepreneurs and business leaders, educational innovators, peacebuilders, artists and social innovators, of all generations and genders. (www.HomeforHumanity.Earth/HomesforHumanity)

Earth citizens everywhere are invited to co-create the One Home UnivEARTHsity, learning from each country and each other, how, in the face of critical challenges, humanity is uniting to preserve the diversity of nature and culture, and innovate, jointly, the future - starting from their own homes.

*Through the One Home UnivEARTHsity
we can unleash our collective power to transform our divided and dangerously declining world into a united Home for Humanity and the Diversity of Life on Earth.*

ONE HOME JOURNEY 2023 - 2030

TRANSFORMATIVE CO-LEARNING EARTH JOURNEYS

Co-Learning Earth Journeys are offered online by the One Home UnivEarthsity to everyone, regardless of age and academic background to accompany the One Home Journey.

This transformative and liberating education fosters Earth Wisdom, honouring our diverse cultures and geographies.

It catalyses Integral Leadership skills, and creative and artistic expression to innovate purpose-based Home for Humanity Initiatives for collective wellbeing.

The Co-Learning Journeys draw on the Integral Earth Curriculum developing co-learners' capacity for Co-Creating Regenerative Livelihoods; Earth Stewardship, Earth Artistry, Earth Wisdom, and Earth Citizenship. All Journeys are based on self-responsible, collective, and peer-mentored learning, and geared towards co-impact.

Activating the Power of Seven: for Exponential Co-Learning, Co-Creation and Collective Impact

Education is not for personal development alone, but for individual, collective and planetary wellbeing. We invite you to join together with friends, colleagues, family, as a joint 'transformation eco-system' of up to 7, paying a single Solidarity or Gift Fee, to co-voyage the Earth from your own home! Together as 7, co-learn, co-create, connect with peers worldwide, and multiply the benefit – for yourselves, your community and the Earth!

LANGUAGE MATTERS! English is the Language of engagement to facilitate communication, connection and exchange. Main registrants must be fluent in English. However, the One Home UnivEARTHsity strongly supports multilingualism to preserve and promote all our 'mother tongues'. Through the "power of 7", co-learners can follow all recordings on youtube with local subtitles – facilitated by the main registrant.

REGENERATIVE GIFT ECONOMY Solidarity Fees Invest in the Future

The One Home UnivEARTHsity operates on a non-profit basis as a Regenerative Gift Economy for Shared Abundance.

It minimizes costs to be accessible to all, and invests in maximising wellbeing for current and future generations.

- The SOLIDARITY FEE covers your participation (with up to 6 co-creators) AND supports one scholarship for a 'Youth for the Future' or 'Woman for the Earth' participant from marginalised contexts to renew their communities.
- The GIFT FEE is a substantially reduced rate, for highly motivated co-learners with financial constraints.

We seek to ensure that all highly motivated co-applicants can participate to become co-creators of our future.

TOGETHER, WE NURTURE A REGENERATIVE GIFT ECONOMY

The solidarity and generosity of every participant and well-wisher build our common future. Co-learning participants' "reciprocal gift fees" generate scholarships for committed women and youth from marginalized contexts in each country to regenerate their communities as integral leaders.

Every GIFT builds our shared Home on Earth - in unity and kinship with all Life!

Youth for the Future

The One Home UnivEARTHsity catalyses and champions the power and potential of youth to reshape our shared future, through the Youth for The Future Scholarship.

Women for the Earth

The One Home UnivEARTHsity wholeheartedly supports and champions women's capacity to transform oppression into power, and to embody integral leadership that nurtures the wellbeing of all life on Earth, through the Women for the Earth Scholarships.

WOMEN FOR THE EARTH Country Scholarships

The One Home UnivEARTHsity champions women's capacity to transform oppression into power, and to embody integral leadership that nurtures the wellbeing of all life on earth.

Each year, up to 25 scholarships will be given, in each of the 35 countries covered each year, to women emerging from violence and oppression who feel deeply called and committed to become integral leaders in their communities, to support other women, to cultivate cultures of non-violence, peace and integrity in their communities, and to regenerate their societies and the Earth.

Integral Leadership: The Scholarship supports women to become integral leaders, and to innovate holistic community initiatives that foster cultures of peace and integrity.

Programme: Scholars follow the 1 year Mother Earth Dipl-Home, and connected with peers in mutual support, they:

- Develop their authentic presence, purpose and inner power as integral women leaders
- Heal and transcend their past, and unlock and express their originality and creativity
- Innovate holistic initiatives that foster a culture of peace and integrity, gender equality and respect towards women, while regenerating culture, society and the earth.
- Generate meaningful regenerative livelihoods to be financially independent and partake in an economy of wellbeing.

They receive an in-country intensive when the One Home Journey reaches their country. They present their initiatives publicly, and be recognised locally and globally.

The Power of 7 for Exponential Impact: Each woman will support, co-mentor and co-create her initiative with up to 6 women in her community, to multiply and sustain impact.

Inspiration and Mentoring by Women Pioneers worldwide: Building on Home for This programme builds on our very long term engagement and support to womenScholars will encounter women leaders of pioneering Homes for Humanity who have overcome violence, oppression and exile: e.g. CORO/Women's Federation in Mumbai, Women's Coalition in Palestine, Terra Meera in Croatia, Integral Kumusha in Zimbabwe, SINAL in Brazil.

Long Term Impact: With up to 875 Women for the Earth from 35 countries across all continents each year, a total of over 4000 such remarkable women leaders will be championed from all 195 countries on Earth by 2029! These once-violated and oppressed women will shine individually and collectively as an interconnected global community of integral women leaders. They will accelerate global progress towards eliminating violence and establishing gender equity. Through their diverse, mutually-reinforcing initiatives, they will establish a lasting culture of humanity and cultivate the wellbeing of all life.

YOUTH FOR THE FUTURE' COUNTRY SCHOLARSHIPS

The One Home UnivEARTHsity catalyses the power and potential of youth to reshape our shared future.

Each year up to 25 youth from marginalised backgrounds who are highly motivated to become integral leaders serving their communities and the Earth, will receive scholarships, in each of the 35 countries visited each year by the One Home Journey.

Thirst for Purposeful Future-building: The youth scholars will be chosen primarily from marginalised backgrounds or disadvantaged contexts, including those who have been displaced, uprooted or denied their rights. It will include those who have not had access to formal education or chose not to follow conventional education, but have a thirst for life-based learning and purposeful future building.

Scholarship Programme: The Youth will follow the 1 year Mother Earth Dipl-Home, giving them a profound connection to and knowledge of the diversity of nature and culture around the earth, as they grow into integral leaders. In collaboration they will:

- Develop their integral leadership skills
- Express their unique creativity
- Innovate their holistic future-building initiative that fulfils their purpose, taps their potential, provides regenerative livelihoods, serves their community, and contributes to regenerating the Earth.

They will receive an on-site intensive when the One Home Journey is in their country. They will present their initiatives publicly and be recognised locally and globally

The Power of 7 for Exponential Impact: Each youth will co-journey, co-learn and co-create with up to 6 community members to amplify and sustain long term impact.

Inspiration and Mentorship by Youth Pioneers: They will encounter pioneers Homes for Humanity initiatives who overcome marginalisation as youth, e.g. Linda Leogah Forkwah, Integral Leewah Revolution (Cameroon); Enzo Ikah refugee musician-activist (DR Congo / Turkey); Dr. Daud Taranhike, Integral Kumusha (Zimbabwe).

Long Term Impact: With about 800 Youth for the Future from 35 countries across all continents each year, totalling over 4000 youth from all 195 countries on Earth over the five years, these once-disadvantaged youth will emerge as a global community of integral leaders, and conscious and caring Earth Citizens, in service of their local communities and of future generations on Earth.
